

OBCAMS 2016 - 2017

The aim of the Oxford Brookes University Coaching and Mentoring Society (OBCAMS) is to bring together researchers and practitioners of coaching and mentoring in order to explore evidence based practice and areas of interest to the field.

OBCAMS Network meets monthly on Friday evenings during semester time (usually in the O'Regan Building on the Wheatley Campus) between 4.30 pm and 6.00 pm unless otherwise stated. Refreshments are provided.

Joining OBCAMS

Membership of the Society is available to anyone interested in their own professional development as a coach or mentor (practitioners, students, academics etc).

Annual membership costs just £30, which covers the cost of refreshments at meetings etc. The membership runs from January to December.

The Society sends out mailings to its members to advise them of forthcoming events, usually by email. We look forward to seeing you.
